SHIP IS DESTROYED AND CREW IS LOST

Was Driven Onto Rocks By A Terriffic Gale.

BODIES OF LOST WASHED ASHORE

Everything Possible Being Done To Recover Bodies and Identify Those Already Ashore—Fifteen Seamen and Apprentices Among Dead.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 29.—The British ship Pass, of Melfort, Captain Gauden, left Ancon for Puget sound, driven ashore on the rocks of Vancouver island, a quarter of a mile east of Amphritrite Point, and all on board, were lost. The vessel was making for the entrance to the straits when a terrific southwest gale drove her to a lee shore on Vancouver island, and the doomed ship was driven with terrific force onto the rocks, breaking up soon afterward.

Bodies of the lost seamen are now coming ashore.

The first body recovered was that of a seaman dressed in oilskins and overalls. Two more were soon afterward seen rolling in the heavy surf, but could not be recovered. A number of the ship's buckets, all marked "Pass of Melfort," were found on the beach, and not far away in a small bay at the extreme end of Amphritrite Point, which marks the westerly entrance to Barkley sound, the ship's barometer, broken boats and the figure head of the bark came ashore together with other wreckage.

Two spars were visible to watchers from shore, washing about as though held by other submerged wreckage.

Torn pieces of paper which seem to be a part of the logbook of Captain Gauden, were found on the beach with the name "John Houston," on it, and not far away a water-soaked photograph of 15 seamen and apprentices of Pass of Melfort, taken at the break of the bark's poop, was found on the beach.

Captain James Gauden, agent of marine of fisheries, received a dispatch from Uclulet that everything possible was being done to recover more bodies and to identify, if possible, the bodies that had come ashore.

There was a whistling buoy recently placed off Amphritrite Point, but it disappeared in a gale two weeks ago and two days before Christmas the government steamer Quadra was sent to look for the missing buoy to replace it but the steamer failed to find the buoy, in a short search and returned to port for Christmas.

The Pass of Melfort is a British iron masted steel bark, of 2,346 tons, built in 1891 at Glasgow, for Gibson & Co. She was last seen by the British ship Broderick Castle, which passed by the wrecked bark, and Captain Oleson, of the Broderick castle, who has had a narrow escape in going into the straits, is expected to report the lost vessel in a port before long.

DOG SAVED THE FAMILY.

Was Heard Scratching at the Back Door of Burning House.

Atlanta, Dec. 29—A faithful dog saved the family of F. A. Blackledge from death by fire when the houses of F. A. Blackledge and Joseph Flynn caught fire and were destroyed. The fire occurred about 1 o'clock in the morning, and the fire alarm was rung in. Two companies responded to the call, but found that the fire was about half a mile outside of the city and that it was impossible to reach it with the hose.

The dog was heard about this time scratching on the back door, and Mrs. Blackledge tried for a while to run him away. Being unable to do so, she opened the door and the dog bounded in. She at once perceived that the house was in flames, and both families were awakened and managed to escape.

Will Send Squadron to Russia.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—A dispatch to the Tribune, from Washington, says the administration will send a squadron and not a single ship to European waters for use in the Russian crisis, in case American life and property are menaced. At a conference between the president, Secretary Root and Secretary Bonaparte, instructions were given Admiral Sigsbee, commanding the cruiser squadron of the North Atlantic fleet, to proceed with the Brooklyn, the Galveston, the Tacoma, and the Chattanooga to Maderia. Then, if necessary causes arises, the squadron will go to the Baltic; otherwise, it will winter at Naples.

Heavy Fines To Be Paid.

St. Louis, Dec. 29.—Officials of several of the organizations popularly termed as "lid lifting clubs," which were raided recently under instructions of Governor Folk, were arraigned in police court on charges of violation of the liquor law. Fines were imposed in sums ranging from $50 to $100. Many of the cases were appealed. Judge Tracey denounced the organizations, declaring that in nearly every instance they are merely subterfuges for the evasion of the Sunday closing law.

Capitalist Battles with Death.

New York, Dec. 29.—Charles T. Yerkes, the capitalist, is showing great vitality in his fight against death at the Waldorf-Astoria, and rallied slightly when it seemed that the end was near. The period of unconsciousness dating from Tuesday night, however, continued, and Dr. Loomis and others in immediate attendance, held out little hope of other than fatal termination of the illness. Mrs. Yerkes, her son and daughter, remain constantly with the patient.

Roosevelt Thanked by Veterans.

Natchez, Miss., Dec. 29.—At a meeting of the local camp Confederate veterans a committee was appointed to draft resolutions thanking President Roosevelt for his recommendation for the nation to take care of confederate graves and for the appointment of General Will T. Martin, a confederate major general of cavalry, as postmaster of Natchez, and Captain John Russell, a one-armed veteran, as collector of the port.

Philippines in Good Condition.

New York, Dec. 29.—Secretary of War Taft, who was in town Thursday, talked a little about the Philippines. "The situation there," the secretary said, "is very much improved. The rice crop is very large and we have just received reports showing that the typhoon did not cause any damage to the crop, as we had thought it did. The Philippines had eight years of hard luck, but I think the tide has surely turned."

To Remodel Treaty.

Washington, Dec. 29.—It is probable that steps will soon be taken by the department of state to secure a revision of remodeling of the existing tradition treaties with France and Germany. Recent events have drawn attention to some serious defects in the old conventions and it is feared before long France and Germany will become havens of refuge for a certain class of American criminals.

RIOTS AT MOSCOW BECOMES MORE QUIET

Revolutionists Resort To Guerrilla Tactics.

TROOPS BOMBARD BARRACKS

The City Again Shows Signs of Life. Stores Are Opened and People, Who Have Been In Hiding, Are Venturing Out on the Thoroughfares.

Moscow, Dec. 28.—6 p. m.—St. Petersburg, Dec. 28.—The backbone of the insurrection is broken and the uprising here rapidly going to pieces.

The revolutionists are able to keep up only a guerilla warfare, but the case with which they can move small detachments from place to place renders the task of suppressing them slow and tedious.

The Brunnaia quarter has been cleared of members of the Drujina, as the fighting organization of the revolutionists is called. They have transferred their operations to Tverskaia consisting principally of sniping from the roofs of houses, occasionally throwing a bomb on advancing patrols and making of the appearance of artillery. All of the troops from Moscow garrison, including the former disaffected Rostoff Grenadiers and the reinforcements which are employed in crushing the revolutionists, are still insufficient to thoroughly occupy the territory.

Many of the attacks on patrols are seemingly made out of a pure spirit of bravado, since they are completely futile from a strategic standpoint.

The remnants of the insurrection now lack cohesion or a head.

The city of Moscow bears the picturesque appearance of a battlefield. Officers are everywhere seen galloping through the streets or being driven about in rapidly moving sleighs, accompanied by escorts of dragoons or Cossacks. The center of the city for the first time today showed signs of life.

The stores were reopened and the inhabitants, who had been cooped up for five days, were able to venture out for a breath of fresh air.

The troops began operations this morning at the triumphal arch, bombarding and demolishing an immense barricade near the car stables of the Belgian company, which had been built behind overturned tram cars. Thence, slowly pivoting from the place they swept eastward clearing all the streets off the Tverskaia and north of the Boulevard, which separated the battleground from the university. The barricades were not so numerous in this region as was the case in yesterday's fighting and the troops encountered less opposition.

Martial Law Declared.

Odessa, Dec. 29.—Martial law has been proclaimed in this city. The strike is, however, nearly over.

Train Was Derailed by Runaway.

LaCrosse, Wis., Dec. 29—A runaway team at Houston, Minn., near here, dashed into a switch stand turning the track just as a Calengo, Milwaukee and St. Paul passenger train was passing, and caused the rear coach to be overturned in the ditch. Three persons were badly injured and 17 others slightly hurt.

Car of Hard Coal for Alice Roosevelt.

Hazelton, Pa., Dec. 29.—The members of local union No. 3, United Mine Workers of America, have decided to present to Miss Alice Roosevelt, as a wedding gift, a carload of the best coal that can be found in the anthracite region, in appreciation of her father's services in ending the great strike of 1892.

Wants $10,000 for an Eye.

Macon, Ga., Dec. 29.—Miss Letta Vinson, an operative in the Willingham cotton mills, has filed suit in the superior court against the company for the recovery of $10,000 on account of the alleged loss of an eye said to have been caused several weeks ago by a flying bobbin in the mills.

NIAGARA FALLS HAS BIG FIRE.

Three Hotels and Several Other Buildings Are Damaged.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Dec. 29—Three hotels and several other buildings adjacent to them were badly damaged by fire which broke out in the grocery store of Faxon, Williams & Faxon, in the basement of the old Porter hotel.

The blaze originated in an explosion which aroused the occupants of the hotel. All made their escape in safety, but with the loss of their clothing and other personal effects.

The flames spread through the Porter hotel to the store of J. & G. Rae, sporting goods, next door, and communicated to the Imperial hotel, of which the Porter house is a portion, and to the Temperance house annex, in the rear of the Imeperial hotel.

The upper story of the annex was destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $140,000.

When the fire appeared to be beyond control an appeal for aid was sent to Buffalo, but before the engines arrived the local firemen had the situation well in hand.

TRY TO REMOVE RECTIVER.

Who Was Appointed In Memphis Bank Falures.

Memphis, Dec. 29.—A bill has been filed and will be argued before Chancellor Heiskell seeking to have John P. Edmondson, removed as receiver of the Merchants' Trust company which closed its doors Wednesday. The bill was filed by T. F. Worrell and W. F. Ladd, who sue for themselves and all other creditors of the Merchants Trust company.

The bill sets forth that the liabilities of the Merchants' Trust company amounts to $3,000,000, and that the assets of the institution are only $2,500,000, when the same are realized on.

The bill alleges that the company is insolvent, and owes $500,000 more than its assets will bring. It further alleges that Receiver Edmondson is a director in the Merchants' Trust company, and a large stockholder, and the court is asked to appoint another receiver.

Tragedy at a Distillery.

Bristol, Va., Dec. 29—A double tragedy was enacted Christmas evening at Bertha, Tenn., near the Virginia-Tennessee line, resulting in the instant death of Roscoe Nichols, and the fatal wounding of Silas Greene, which has given rise to a condition in that section bordering on a state of war. A dispatch says there are one hundred armed men in the mountains near the scene of the tragedy following leaders from among the friends of the dead and wounded men, and that a bloody conflict seems certain. During the day both factions have been gathering arms and ammunition.

Great Petroleum Supply.

Washington, Dec. 29.—The United States supplied more than one-half of the petroleum produced in the world in 1904. A statement of the world's production of petroleum, prepared by the British board of trade, which has just reached the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor, puts the petroleum production of the world in 1904 at 9,303,000,000 gallons, of which 4,916,000,000 gallons were produced in the United States. The world's production for 1904 breaks all records.

He said yesterday that his enforced stay in Japan was made pleasant in every way by the Japanese. He is now on his way to St. Petersburg.

CHANCELLOR HILL SUCCUMBS TO DEATH

Distinguished Georgian Yields To Pneumonia Attack.

NOTED EDUCATOR AND LAWYER

Among His Literary Productions Are the Code of Georgia from 1873 to 1882 and Memoirs of the Western and Atlantic Railroad.

Athens, Ga., Dec. 29.—Chancellor Hill died at 3:10 Thursday morning. The end came very suddenly. He seemed to suffer no pain, but simply ceased to breathe.

It was a desperate fight all day Wednesday to keep the heart going. Only the constant use of strychnine, nitroglycerine and oxygen had effected this. When left alone for two minutes, the patient would get blue in the face, denoting the terrific work that the heart was called upon to do.

Walter Barnard Hill, educator and lawyer, was born in Talbotton, Ga., Sept. 9, 1851. He was a son of Judge Barnard and Mary Clay Birch Hill. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1870 and from the university law school in 1871 with the degree of A. M. Emory honored him with the degree of LL.D. in 1899, as did the Southwestern Presbyterian university in the same year. He practiced law in Macon from 1871 to 1899, when he became chancellor of the University of Georgia, which position he has held since.

Among Chancellor Hill's literary productions are the Code of Georgia from 1873 to 1882. Memoirs of the General Conference of the M. E. chruch south 1886-94. Memoirs of the Western and Atlantic railroad. He was a trustee of Vanderbilt university and a member of the Georgia Bar association. He was president of the Georgia Bar association in 1888. He was also a member of the American Bar association and was at one time chairman of the committee of judicial administration of the latter association. He has written several prominent works on literary, legal and ethical subjects.

Accidentally Shot.

Columbus, Ga., Dec. 29.—J. C. Green, of Crawford, Ala., was accidentally shot by F. M. Slaughter, his brother in law, while the two were playing with pistols. They had taken the loads out and were snapping the empty weapons at each other. One of the pistols was reloaded and Slaughter forgot this fact, and pointing it at Greene, pulled the trigger. The ball entered Greene's back between the shoulder blade and backbone. The wounded man will probably recover.

Negro Cuts a White Farmer.

Paschal, Ga., Dec. 29.—Cliff Casey, a young farmer, was seriously stabbed by a negro here. No provocation of any kind can be assigned for the difficulty, unless the negro was offended by having to leave Mr. Casey's farm. Mr. Casey was unarmed and was unable to defend himself in any way from the unexpected attack. The negro is still at large. Mr. Casey at present is in a very critical condition and will probably not recover from the serious wounds received.

To Establish Customs Unions.

Vienna, Dec. 29.—The reports from Belgrade, Servia, to the effect that Servia and Bulgaria are about to establish a customs union are regarded here as evidence that the Balkan states are mutually binding themselves closer together in order to better be able to resist future political pressure on the part of the governments of western Europe.

Is Asked to Resign.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 29.—The News says it has developed that Governor Hanley has asked for the resignation of Daniel E. Storms, secretary of state. This was after two hours' conference between Governor Hanley, Attorney General Miller and Storms. It is not known whether or not Mr. Storms will tender his resignation.

HAPPY ENDING OF HAILE HOUSE PARTY

Announcement Made of Engagement of Popular Young People.

COL. ELLIS AND MISS TAYLOR

These Distinguished Young People Will be United in Matrimony in April of the Coming Year—Beautiful Remarks by Chief Justice Taylor.

At the house party which has been in progress at the old Haile homestead at Kanapaha, the numerous selected guests were pleasingly surprised at the close of the sumptuous dinner Friday evening by the following announcement from Justice R. Fenwick Taylor:

"Fourteen hundred years ago a custom was adopted in France that had in it so much of good sense and propriety that it quickly spread to nearly all of the European States. In the year A. D. 1200, the great Archbishop Walter enforced it as an ordinance of the church. That grand old Puritan, Oliver Cromwell, the great Protector, had his parliament in 1653 to enact it into a law. Our Pilgrim Fathers brought it with them to the Western World.

"In conversance with this time-honored custom, I now, here and in this dear old home of her mother, around which cluster so many sacredly tender memories, proclaim and announce the marriage engagement of my daughter, Ena, to Hon. William H. Ellis, Florida's distinguished Attorney-General, the marriage to take place in April next, 'when the roses come again.'"

Col. Ellis responded in his accustomed happy vein.

The happy and distinguished couple being present, received the heartiest congratulations of the entire company.

THE MARRIAGE MARKET.

Judge Mason Issued Many Licenses Within the Past Two Days.

County Judge Mason had a smile on his countenance yesterday that would have done credit to a candidate who had just emerged from a successful campaign. The reason for this was apparent when the genial Judge handed over his license book, which read for the past two days as follows:

Henry Robinson and Piney Johnson, Mack Spence and Susie Coleman, Will Lee and Mollie King, Wm. Rowe and Gertise McGinnis, H. W. Austin and Celia Bishop, Ned Burns and Bertha Wilson, Robert Long and Elizabeth Davis, Fleming Holmes and Faustine Joshua, Paul Sanders and Florrie McCray, Bill Jenkins and Laura Melton, Frederick Taylor and Hannah Lamon.

The month just closed has been one of the heaviest for the issuing of marriage licenses in the administration of Judge Mason, which is a sign that the county is prosperous.

There was a great deal of spirit and enthusiasm manifested by members of the lodge, and the membership is increasing every month. This camp is one of the most progressive in Florida.

The newly-elected officers will be installed at the next regular meeting, which will be Wednesday.

Palatka is Prosperous.

Wm. M. Lyon of Palatka was among the business visitors to this city yesterday. He states that Palatka is on the greatest boom for many years, and that the growth is steady and will be permanent. The city has recently completed a fine system of sewerage, the Putnam House has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired and will open in a few days, and the Georgia Southern and Florida has recently completed one of the finest and most modern passenger stations in Florida. In all, Palatka is on of the coming towns in Florida, and every Palatkan is proud of this fact.

CONCEIT OF THE SOMALI.

He Feels He Is About the Most Perfect Man In the World.

Perhaps the most remarkable characteristic of the natives of Somaliland is their unbounded, preposterous conceit. Englishmen who know their language have been appalled by it. When watering his camel or his horse the Somali encourages the animal to drink by chanting to it in a monotone. It is at such moments of extemporary effusion that the man shines in all his glory. The subject matter may be the experiences of the day's march, the virtues of the animal beside him, the charms of his latest wife or his own prowess in some bloodless tribal raid. By great good fortune the following literal translation of one of these chants or songs came into my possession, and I insert it without any comment:

"Will you see a man? Then behold me! I am a Somali, as perfect in size and form as Adam was after God had breathed into him his immortal soul. Look how beautiful my curly hair is and how majestic I look when wrapped from head to foot in my snow white or jungle colored tobe, although there be sometimes only one pie (a small piece of money) tied to it. My house is the desert, and I am born a free man, free as the wind! I know neither king nor master. I am as Adam was—my own master and king. In the jungle I tend my camels and sheep. My only labor is to watch them feed. In my kerrier my wife, my dear slave, does all the manual work, while tending my offspring, and woe to her if she forgets to prepare my evening meal. The jedal (whip) shall then have its turn to make her remember for next day. In such a state is any man happier than I?"—Golden Penny.

PROPERTIES OF GLYCERIN.

Decomposes if Heated Intensely and Crystallizes if Frozen.

One of the great advantages of glycerin in its chemical employment is the fact that it neither freezes nor evaporates under any ordinary temperature. No perceptible loss by evaporation has been detected at a temperature less than 200 degrees F., but if heated intensely it decomposes with a smell that few persons find themselves able to endure. It burns with a pale flame, similar to that from alcohol, if heated to about 300 degrees and then ignited. Its nonevaporative qualities make the compound of much use as a vehicle for holding pigments and colors, as in stamping and typewriter ribbons, carbon papers and the like.

If the pure glycerin be exposed for a long time to a freezing temperature it crystallizes with the appearance of sugar candy, but these crystals being once melted it is almost an impossibility to get them again into the congealed state. If a little water be added to the glycerin no crystallization will take place, though under a sufficient degree of cold the water will separate and form crystals, amid which the glycerin will remain in its natural state of fluidity. If suddenly subjected to intense cold pure glycerin will form a gummy mass which cannot be entirely hardened or crystallized. Altogether it is quite a peculiar substance.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Earliest Theater.

What was probably one of the earliest theaters built was the theater of Dionysus, which was begun five centuries before Christ. The seating capacity of this remarkable building is said to have been 30,000, nearly four times that of our largest amusement palace. The theater of Dionysus was erected when Greek art and literature were in their prime. Here were presented to appreciative spectators the wonderful works of Æschylus, Sophocles and Euripides.

Tom Burnett Charged With Selling Liquor at High Springs.

LIQUOR WAS IN EVIDENCE

In Judge Mason's Court, and Officer Granger Stated That it Came From His Den—Defendant Released Upon a Bond of $200.

Because Tom Burnett, who realized that it was against the peace and dignity of the laws of Alachua, county persisted it is alleged, in selling liquor at High Springs, he is now in trouble, and will have to stand the consequences of the decision of a jury at the spring term of the circuit court.

Burnett was arrested several days ago in High Springs upon a charge of dispensing booze in a county which had voted against the sale of same. He was arraigned in Mayor Barrs' court, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25, but sentence was suspended, as Mayor Barrs was informed that a county officer was present for the purpose of arresting Burnett upon the same charge. No sooner had the man been released, and was congratulating himself, than Deputy Sheriff Granger placed the clutches of the law upon him and brought him to Gainesville. He was arraigned in Judge Mason's court, and the numerous bottles of beer and whiskey which Officer Granger states were taken from his "den" were filed in evidence.

Judge Mason required the defendant to give a bond of $200 for his appearance at the spring term of the circuit court.

It has been said that there are several "tigers" at High Springs, and the officers will make another raid within the next few days.

WINDSOR ITEMS.

Several New Arrivals in That Town. Enjoyable Christmas Festivities.

Windsor, December 29.—Several new arrivals are in Windsor this week. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Davenport of Indiana, who expect to spend the winter at this place; also Will Torode from Georgia, who is visiting his kinsman, John Torcde.

Tom Montgomery, Jr., is spending the holidays with his father, George Montgomery.

Christmas passed off very pleasantly at Windsor. There was no disturbance of any kind to mar the enjoyment of the day. The young men and boys had a big time shooting off chickens.

There were twenty or thirty transfers of poultry at greatly-fluctuating prices and at the close of the day each one was a winner to a greater or less extent.

Wednesday evening the young people gathered under the hospitable roof of Mr. Torode and spent a pleasant opening socially. Another party is scheduled for Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spivey.

On Christmas evening there was a Christmas tree and entertainment at Wesley Chapel. A very plessing program was rendered by the members of the two Sunday schools, after which presents were distributed, much to the delight of the little folks.

Swell Colored Wedding.

Editor Sun: Please give me space in your valued paper to say that there was a happy wedding at the home of Mrs. Molly Reddick, 1210 West Liberty street, on Wednesday afternoon, December 28, the contracting parties being Paul Sanderson and Florida McCray, both popular and industrious young people of their race, and worthy of special mention.

The groom has for some time been a faithful employe of the Gainesville Planing and Coffin Company. The bride is the organist of Mt. Carmel church, and a talented musician, being a teacher of music.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. P. Sauption. GUEST.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her whole long, accompanied by falling hair, etc. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, gives the hair free to grow as healthy as nature intended. Destroy the cause and remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. SMILEY SHOOTS CALDWELL.

Tragedy Said To Be Result of a Previous Quarrel.

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 29.—In Cataloochie township, Haywood county, on Christmas day, John Smiley shot and instantly killed Rufus Caldwell, without, it is alleged, any apparent provocation.

According to th ereport received the two young men were riding horseback from one part of the township to another. Smiley was riding in the rear of the party, and suddenly, without a word of warning, drew a revolver and fired point blank at Caldwell, who was riding but a few paces in front of him. The bullet entered a vital spot and Caldwell fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Smiley was at once arrested and taken to Waynesville, where he is now in jail. He has refused to make any statment regarding the shooting.

Caldwell was 22 years of age, and Smiley a year older. It is supposed the men had some misunderstanding, and the shooting resulted from a previous quarrel.

May Demand $235,000.

New York, Dec. 29.—It has been learned, says the Times, that the New York Life Insurance company investigating committee, of which Thomas P. Fowler is chairman, does not consider Andrew Hamilton's report on his legislative expenditures satisfactory. The committee had the report before it all of Tuesday forenoon before it was given to the Armstrong investigating committee. The New York Life committee will accordingly proceed independently to obtain an accounting from Hamilton, and, failing in this, will look to President Joan A. McCall to make good his pledge to refund to the company the $235,000 that Hamilton got in 1904, if it was not accounted for satisfactorily by Dec. 15th last.

Is Arrested on a Charge of Forgery.

Eufaula, Ala., Dec. 29.—Rena Burke, a well known negress, and for many years a school teacher, has been arrested here fgor forgery and was landed in jail. It is charged she forged a check on the Commercial National bank of this city for $200, using the name of a prominent citizen as the payee and another as the drawer of the check. Upon presenting it for payment she promptly indorsed the name of the payee across the back, but the cashier's suspicion was aroused in some way and he withheld payment until an investigation could be made. When arrested she confessed and gave as her only excuse that she needed the money and thought that she could easily get it in that way.

Woman's Assailant Identified.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 29—Jim McCall, the negro who has been identified as the one who assaulted Mrs. A. S. Reed a week ago, has been held in heavy bail to await the action of the grand jury. He was positively identified by Mrs. Reed who swore that he grabbed her from behind and forced her to the ground, as she cried for help. The negro ran when he heard a passerby.

The Requisite of Beauty.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow, blotched complexion, as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and it is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Company.

John Sharpe Williams was lucky. He didn't make as many enemies in his committee appointments as Speaker Cannon, as he had fewer appointments to make.

FLATTERING RULERS.

Their Weak Points Pass Unnoticed. Napoleon's Marksmanship.

Rulers have always been flattered, from Canute's time downward, it being, it would seem, an unwritten law that a monarch's weak points should pass unrecognized. Napoleon III. once said, in consoling a friend who chanced to be shooting with him for his poor marksmanship:

"You need not fret about it. The emperor (by which he meant his uncle, the great Napoleon I.) was even a worse shot than you are. The only time they put a gun in his hand he killed a poor hound and went away thinking he had killed a stag.

"In those days the stag, whenever brought to bay, was left for the emperor to kill. One day, however, the emperor was not to be found, and the master of the staghounds finished the animal with his knife. Just then the emperor came in sight.

"They hurriedly got the dead stag on its legs, propping it up with branches, etc., and handed the emperor the 'carabine of honor,' as it was called. The emperor fired, and of course the stag tumbled over, but at the same time there was a piteous whine from one of the hounds, which had been shot through the head.

"The emperor wheeled around, unconscious of the mischief he had done, saying to one of the aids-de-camp, 'After all, I am not as bad a shot as they pretend!'"

HOW A BADGER WORKS.

Can Excavate Almost as Rapidly as a Man With a Spade.

During the day the badger sleeps deep in his burrow, far out on our western plains and prairies, and at twilight he starts forth on a night's foraging. He is a dreaded enemy of the prairie dog and the ground squirrel, and when he begins to excavate for one nothing but solid rock or death can stop him.

With the long, blunt claws of his fore feet he loosens up the dirt. Dig, dig, dig! He works as though his life depended on it, now scratching out the sides of the hole, then turning on his back to work overhead.

At first he throws the dirt out between his hind legs, but soon he is too far down for that, so he banks it up back of him, then turns about and using his chest and forward parts as a pusher shoves it out before him.

He works with such rapidity that it would be somewhat difficult for a man to overtake him with a spade.—St. Nicholas.

Killing a Robin.

There are persons at the present day—and not all old women either—who believe that killing a robin will bring bad luck. According to ancient belief, the storm cloud was a huge bird. The Arabians represented his wings as measuring 10,000 fathoms. This bird lived on worms, the latter being the streaks of lightning accompanying storms. The Germans remodeled the fiction by creating the god Thor, whose bird was the robin. Consequently to kill a robin first meant death by lightning, then bad luck.

The Early Boom.

"When I was a boy," said the rather vain person, "everybody said I was going to be president of the United States."

"Yes," answered the seasoned politician. "Your case simply illustrates my argument that it isn't safe to start a boom too far ahead of election."—Washington Star.

George L. Dobson has resigned his position as consul general at Hangchow, China, after but a few weeks. He says Hangchow is the filthiest city on earth. The Chinese don't bury their dead, sometimes even when they die from cholera, and he is coming back.

The Board of Trade of Gainesville held a meeting yesterday afternoon, having for its object the consideration of the question of a union passenger depot for that city. We are glad to see the business men of Gainesville taking hold of this matter, and hope their efforts will be crowned with success. We know of another city in this State about the size of Gainesville that needs a new union depot, and if the Board of Trade and business men will take the matter up, we believe they, too, will be successful. Let's try it, gentlemen.—Live Oak Daily Democrat.

A. C. L. CHANGES.

The Wilmington, (N. C.) Messenger says that the following appointments have been officially announced at the headquarters of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co. in that city, to become effective January 1st, 1906:

Horace M. Emerson, General Traffic Manager.

W. R. Sullivan, Assistant to the President.

R. A. Brand, Freight Traffic Manager.

W. J. Craig, Passenger Traffic Manager.

James Menzies, General Freight Agent of Second Division.

J W. Perrin, General Freight Agent of First Division.

C. McD. Davis, Assistant General Freight Agent.

The creation of the office of general traffic manager was one of the most important matters before the Board of Directors of the Atlantic Coast Line, which met last week (Thursday) in New York City. At the same time the office of traffic manager was abolished and the present incumbent of that position, Mr. Horace M. Emerson, was chosen to fill the new office.

On assuming control of the traffic department of the Coast Line system, Mr. Emerson reorganized the department and made the several appointments which appear at the head of this article, official notice of which will be announced in a few days. The changes are very important.

The promotion of Mr. Emerson carries with it immense responsibility and it is the recognition by the directors of his earnest and capable work for the road, extending over a period of many years. He gradually arose in the company's service. For many years he was general freight and passenger agent, until three years ago, when the changes were made in the system and he was appointed traffic manager, which position he still holds, giving it up on the first of the new year to assume control as general traffic manager of all the traffic over the extensive Coast Line system. Mr. Emerson is a railroad man of large experience and splendid ability and his friends and railroad men generally will rejoice in the deserved promotion that has come to him.

Mr. W. J. Craig, who was general passenger agent, now becomes passenger traffic manager, his authority becoming vastly greater; with a consequent increase of responsibility. Mr. Craig also came to Wilmington from Augusta. On assuming the position as general passenger agent he started a course of systematic and thorough advertising, which resulted in very great good to the system. He has shown great interest in the country through which the Coast Line runs and in his official capacity he has done all in his power to aid in the upbuilding and development of the Southland.

These changes will cause many other changes in the various departments of the Coast Line, it being the custom to advance the efficient men in its employ.

GIFT FOR ALICE.

The proposal to raise a sum of upwards of $800,000 as a wedding present to Miss Alice Roosevelt on her wedding day has been discouraged by her father, the President, who appreciates the evidence of good will, but is not ready to pass the hat.

The best plan would be for those fellows to wait until the end of the second term of President Roosevelt, and then make him a suitable gift, provided they are on good terms at the expiration of his official career.

He has just started in on his own hook, as you might say, and the chances are that when he steps down and out those same fellows may want to present him with a brick house—one brick at a time.

CHURCH ADVERTISING.

A Leavenworth, Kansas, preacher says he believes in advertising religion, and his views will apply to many places besides Leavenworth. "Run the church on a business basis and you'll get results," he says. "I've tried all kinds of dodgers, handbills, window cards, etc., but I believe the daily newspaper is the best. A theater advertises its attractions, why shouldn't the church, to let the people know it is awake and doing business in the King's name?

"The newspaper of late years naturally gives considerable space to church announcements, because the people are interested in them, and most newspapers wish to help along a worthy cause whenever possible. Yet there are pastors who not only neglect to take advantage of the kindly disposition of the newspapers towards them, but who place obstacles in the way of newspapers securing news about their churches. In the larger cities church announcements of Sunday services are paid for, and in not every town in Kansas are the notices of services printed free as they are here."

The Kansas preacher also thinks the time will come when churches will not only take advantage of the free notices, but will run display advertisements.

Up to the present time the business outlook for Florida for the year 1906 seems to be most flattering, and throughout the entire State there are few, if any, reports of business failures. The close of a successful tourist season will leave the hotel and boarding house people in a good condition financially, and it should also be borne in mind that the winter visitors also spend no small sum while here. All these little items help to swell the total, and every dollar that is started to roll about the cities and towns is bound to be captured by someone. But don't be discouraged if they are not all caught and handed directly to you. If the grocer gets the dollar first he may take it to the dry goods man, and it soon starts rolling around the city, and is sure to do service at several places. All that is needed is to start the dollar.

There is one man always deserving of your sympathy and help—that is the poor man unskilled as to trade or profession, who is honestly and laboriously trying to feed and clothe a large family. If you can give such a man work, do so. If he works for you pay him fair wages and do not make him wait for his money. No more serious problem confronts any man than this: How to feed, clothe and educate a large family of five or six children on average daily earnings of less than a dollar and a half a day.

St. George street in St. Augustine is so narrow that the city authorities will not allow vehicles to pass only to the north along that thoroughfare to avoid blockades.

Ned Ziegler, Anderson and Robinson Reeves of Jacksonville are being held in that city to await the action of the grand jury, being charged with causing the death of John Jenkins.

Sam Chapman and the A. C. L. baggageman at Orlando had a mix-up on Wednesday afternoon, and Robertson, the baggage smasher, carved Chapman so badly with a knife that he couldn't tell how it happened.

D. C. Pell's "squab" farm at Orlando received 624 mated pigeons from Boston a few days ago, making somewhere over a thousand he now has housed. When it is known that these birds will produce a pair every month you can figure up that there will soon be a plenty of material for "squab" pie.

A settlement was made Monday, says The Orlando Evening Star, between the Seaboard Air Line Railway and Mrs. Lusadder, widow of the late John Lusadder, who was killed a few days ago in a wreck near Plymouth. Through the efforts of Dr. Abernathy and others a very satisfactory adjustment was made for the widow and little daughter.

The Jacksonville Pure Food and Industrial Exposition will entertain the members of the State press on the evening of January 3rd, the night prior to the opening of the grand show. A supper, vaudeville entertainment and short addresses will take up the evening. Chairman George W. Wilson of the press committee will have charge, a guarantee that all will be up to the times.

While acting the part of Santa Claus Wednesday night at a Christmas tree given by the Sunday school of the East End Baptist Church, Pensacola, C. D. Smith was badly burned about the neck and face and his condition reported as being quite serious. Mr. Smith wore a mask of whiskers made of cotton, and was standing on a chair taking presents from the Christmas tree and delivering them to the children, when the cotton caught from a candle. Immediately the entire mask was a mass of flames and before it could be removed he had suffered painful burns.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician, but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat, December 1st, 1901." McNahan and Engineer Charlie Weekler were in charge of the passenger train, while John Strickland and Edd Dunbar were on the freight. The injured are S. P. Strickland, of Macon; C. R. Dent, of Atlanta; B. F. Markeret, of Atlanta; P. A. Adams, of Atlanta; J. T. Smith, of Jackson; Express Messenger Herndon and Porter Harris. Miss Nellie Johnston, of 160 Mangum street, Atlanta, was slightly injured.

LaGrippe and Pneumonia.

Pneumonia often follows lagrippe, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cures lagrippe, coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Mr. G. Vacher, 157 Osgood street, Chicago, writes: "My wife had a severe case of lagrippe three years ago and it left her with a terrible cough. She tried a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar and it gave immediate relief. A 50-cent bottle cured her cough entirely." Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Company.

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 29.—Midshipman Stephen Decatur, Jr., of Portsmouth, N. H., a member of the first class of midshipmen, is charged with complicity in hazing at the naval academy, and he is to be tried by courtmartial. Mr. Otto A. Fleissner's KIDNEYS WERE SOAKED WITH CATARRH.

Pe-ru-na Promptly Cured Him.

Mr. Otto A. Fleissner, Rainier Grand Hotel, Seattle, Washington.

Mr. Otto A. Fleissner, American Epicurean, late Chef to Col. W. J. Coady, (Buffalo Bill), now chef at the Rainier Grand Hotel Seattle, Wash., writes:

"I suffered with kidney and bladder trouble until life did not seem worth living. I had tried many medicines, but did not get any relief until I took Peruna. It was really wonderful how much better I was after I had used this medicine only a week. I did not expect that it would help me permanently, but as long as it was doing me good I continued to use it. At the end of six months I found to my relief that it had rid my system of all poisons, and that I was cured to stay cured. You certainly have a splendid medicine and I gladly endorse it."—Otto A. Fleissner.

Catarrh of the Kidneys a Common Disease—Kidney Trouble Often Fails to Be Regarded as Catarrh by Physicians.

Catarrh of the kidneys is very common indeed. It is a pity that this fact is not better known to the physicians as as well as to the people.

People have kidney disease. They take some diuretic, hoping to get better. They never once think of catarrh. Kidney disease and catarrh are seldom associated in the minds of the people, and, alas, they are not very often associated in the minds of the physicians. Too few physicians recognize catarrh of the kidneys. They doctor for something else. They try this remedy and that remedy. The trouble may be catarrh all the time. A few bottles of Peruna would cure them.

PE-RU-NA CURES CATARRH OF THE KIDNEYS.

Pe-ru-na Removes the Cause of the Kidney Trouble.

Peruna strikes at the very centre of the difficulty by eradicating the catarrh from the kidneys. Catarrh is the cause of kidney difficulty. Remove the cause and you remove the effect. With unerring accuracy Peruna goes right to the spot. The kidneys are soon doing their work with perfect regularity.

Thousands of Testimonials.

Thousands of testimonials from people who have had kidney disease which had gone beyond the control of the physician are received by Dr. Hartman every year, giving Peruna the whole praise for marvelous cures.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

AGED LADY RUN DOWN BY TRAIN

Mrs. Prescott of Starke Stepped Upon Track and Was Killed.

A HIGHLY RESPECTED LADY

Was Mother-in-Law of Sheriff Bennett of Bradford County and a Lady of Refinement—Death a Great Shock to All Her Friends.

Parties arriving on the noon train Friday bring information to the effect that Mrs. Prescott, mother-in-law of Sheriff Bennett of Bradford county, was run over and mangled by a Seaboard Air Line train in the outskirts of Starke Friday morning.

The particulars were meager, since the parties bringing the information left Starke shortly after the sad accident occurred and it was impossible for them to secure much definite information. It appears that the train which ran down the lady was the Cedar Key-Jacksonville train, which leaves Gainesville at 7:30 in the morning and passes Starke about two hours later.

The unfortunate victim, who is defective in hearing, was walking along the track. She did not hear the approaching train and stepped upon the track about fifty feet in front of the locomotive. Notwithstading that every effort was made to stop the train, all failed and the lady was knocked from the track by the pilot of the engine. She was not killed instantly and Dr. J. M. Dell, Jr., who was on the train, was summoned. The victim was taken to her home, where everything possible was done, but she expired in a short time.

This affair was unfortunate and friends of Sheriff Bennett in this section will smpathize with him.

CROWNING OF CHRISTMAS.

Delightful Cantata by the First Presbyterian Sunday School.

There was a large audience present at the opera house last evening to listen to the Christmas cantata, "Crowning of Christmas," by the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian Church. The cantata is full of songs and recitations, and opens with a committee called to decide which day should be the one to celebrate by the Sunday school.

The various days, consisting of St. Valentine's Day, Washington's Birthday, Children's Day, Independence Day, Thanksgiving Day, were represented by typical characters, until at the end Old Santa Claus came and won

Considering the short time for preparation all did remarkably well, and the seven little girls representing Children's Day did exceptionally well. All spoke very distinctly.

The entertainment concluded with the distribution of presents and there was a happy lot of children.

BLOODY BATTLE IN ALABAMA.

Two Negro Desperadoes Are Killed and a Third Captured.

Meridian, Miss., Dec. 29.—In a pitched battle between a posse of white men and three negro desperadoes, near Williams' Cross Roads, Choctaw county, Alabama, two negroes were killed and the third captured

Kid George and Bob Berry are the names of the two dead men, while Joe Johnson is the name of the injured one. George is said to have murdered a white man on the Gulf and Ship Island railroad, in Mississippi, some time ago, and Berry and Johnson are believed to have been escaped convicts from Alabama.

The gang is said to have been engaged in robbing whites and blacks, and causing a general reign of terror in the community where they were run down for the past ten days.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies without relief until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of throat and lungs. At all druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottles free.

Artist Dalrymple Dead.

New York, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Louis Dalrymple, an artist whose caricatures of politicians and cartoons on political situations have appeared in well known newspapers and periodicals, died suddenly last night of acute paresis in the Long Island home, in Amityville, where he was taken about a month ago. Mr. Dalrymple was born in Cambridge, Ill., 42 years ago. Seven years ago he married Miss Ann Good, of Baltimore, who survives him.

Remarkable Cure.

"I was much afflicted with sciatica," writes Ed C. Nud, Iowaville, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used. Have recommended it to a number of persons. All express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Honeymoon Trips to Avoid.

"There are two pieces of advice I'd like to give about honeymoons," said the man who has had two of them. "One of them is, never go on a long sea voyage with your new wife. The other is, never take a long automobile trip with her. I've tried both, and both have been miserable failures. I would not be guilty of such an unchivalrous comment had both of my wives not agreed with me in both instances. Just think of having knocked down all the barriers of conventionality which practically shielded you during the courtship to find yourself for eight or ten days in such close companionship with your better half as is offered on an automobile honeymoon! It's awful when you think of it. When I was on my last honeymoon, which was the automobile one, we were only three days on the road when I was reminded of the man who turned to his wife during their honeymoon and said, 'Don't you wish some friend would come along?' 'Oh, yes, dear,' she sighed, 'or an enemy even!'"—Philadelphia Record.

Doctors Could Not Help Her.

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eleminate the poisons from the blood. Unless they do this good health is impossible. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Weak Human Nature.

From many selections from Marcus Aurelius we choose this as showing his keen insight into this weak human nature of ours: "I have often wondered how it is that every man loves himself more than all the rest of men, but yet sets less value on his own opinion of himself than on the opinion of others."

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colcon of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at all druggists.

English Law of Arrests.

No arrests may be made in England on a Sunday except for treason, felony or a breach of the peace, and freedom from arrest at any time on civil process is a privilege enjoyed by members of the royal family and their servants, bishops, peers and peeresses and members of parliament during the sitting of parliament and forty days before and after each session.

AN ALPINE TRAGEDY.

Thrilling Story of a Fall Down the Matterhorn.

"One of the most thrilling stories in Alpine history is that of Mr. Sloggett's fall on the Matterhorn," writes Aubrey Le Blond. "With two Zermatt guides—Alphons Furrer and Augustin Gentinetta—this young Englishman had made a quick ascent of the mountain and was a long way down on the return journey. At one spot it is necessary to cross a couloir, or gully of snow and ice, and down this channel fall most of the stones that detach themselves from the shattered face of the peak. The leading guide, Furrer, was making his way over when a stone, dropping from a considerable height, struck him full on the head and instantly killed him. The two others, attached by their rope to his dead body, were unable in their precarious foothold to resist the shock and were immediately swept away down the couloir at terrific speed. Their axes were torn from their grasp, and Gentinetta, who never lost consciousness, was convinced that death must await them at the end of that awful journey, but this man of iron nerve kept his presence of mind and showed what a stout heart and a keen intelligence can do even in the most desperate situation.

"About 800 feet below the spot where the party were carried off a small bergschrund or crevasse ran across the ice slope which forms the base of the Matterhorn on its eastern side. This crevasse is not always open—in fact, in October, 1903, when I went on to the mountain to photograph the scene of this accident, it did not exist at all. Beneath it are ice cliffs, and any one shooting the crevasse and falling over these would have a sheer drop which must immediately be fatal, but in Mr. Sloggett's case the crack was several feet wide and into it the two still living men and their dead companion were precipitated. The chasm was partly filled with stones and sand, and Mr. Sloggett fell face down. Gentinetta, though terribly bruised, without an instant's delay seized the helpless form of his employer, pulled him out of the position in which he lay, almost suffocating, and cleared the sand out of his throat and eyes.

"His jaw was broken, and his bruises were even worse than those of Gentinetta, but no other bones were broken. The disaster was already bad enough, but at any moment an even more terrible catastrophe threatened the two poor wounded men in the crevasse. The couloir was, as I have said, a natural channel for falling stones, and it was just the hottest hour of the day, when the snow was thawing fast and loosening from its fetters the missiles it had earlier held fast frozen to the mountain. It was imperative to lose no time in waiting for assistance from the other parties who were on the Matterhorn. So the guide and the Englishman, without axes, bruised, shaken and weak, started on the desperate task of climbing back up that glassy, blood stained wall, a task hard enough even for an uninjured and fully equipped party.

"How it was accomplished Gentinetta declares he does not know, but by an extraordinary display of pluck and skill the two at length reached their old tracks and gained a place of safety. Assistance was now at hand, and with the help of the other parties the wounded men eventually arrived at the Schwarze hotel. Though laid up for many weeks after, both in the end made an excellent recovery. Poor Furrer's body was with much difficulty brought down next day from the crevasse."

A Ruse of War.

It is not always policy to acknowledge a defeat. A little coolness at the critical moment sometimes saves the day, as in the case described in Mr. Ripley's "Story of Company F." In a close encounter during the civil war two soldiers, one from each army, came face to face within short range.

Each put up his gun and fired, as it subsequently appeared, his last cartridge. Both missed. The bullet of one man buried itself in a tree, and the shot of the other passed through the hat of his enemy. Each man, knowing his ammunition was gone, supposed himself to be at a disadvantage.

One of them made a great show of reloading his gun, and, stepping forward, demanded a surrender. The other threw down his arms with a groan.

"If I had another cartridge, I would not surrender!" he exclaimed.

"That's all right," calmly remarked the captor, marching off his prisoner. "If I had another, you may be sure I wouldn't have asked you to surrender."

Goblets.

Goblets with stem and stand like those we use today were employed in Egypt 1900 B. C. Among the valuable antiquities found by Dr. Schliemann was a golden goblet. Vessels of this metal were commonly employed in the service of the temples.

To be thrown upon one's own resources is to be cast into the very lap of fortune.—Franklin.
